

English Translation — Message No. 32 (SHAMA)

Great Nation of Iran,

As stated in previous messages—including Message No. 29 dated 1404/9/30—we declared Iran’s situation to be a “pre-revolutionary” one and conveyed our concern about the possibility of a blind uprising lacking leadership, management, and a roadmap. Through your efforts, in only seven days this prediction became reality, and the chants of “Death to Khamenei” echoed across Iran. We now present the following points to your attention:

- 1) The experience of your uprisings over the past quarter century shows that not only do uprisings without leadership end in failure, but weak leaders lacking sufficient capacity and competence, even despite widespread public participation, will themselves cause failure. The Green Movement of 2009 (1388) and “Woman, Life, Freedom” in 2022 (1401) are clear examples.
- 2) Until now, scattered, fragmented, and disconnected protests—without planning, without order, and without discipline—have been held across the country by different groups, classes, and professions. Despite heavy human and material costs, they have yielded no result. Learning from these experiences, the time has now come for national solidarity and organized, planned, and managed protests, so that the balance of power shifts in your favor and the illegitimate ruling authority is compelled to transfer power to you through peaceful means. Clearly, the prerequisite for national solidarity is a return to national identity and to Iran’s culture of compassion and fellowship.
- 3) Rejecting traitors to the homeland who supported foreign aggression against beloved Iran is an unavoidable necessity—those who, by hand-picking one separatist and a few actors who, despite artistic reputation, had no political or struggle-related competence, gathered them around themselves, and whose “bus” that was supposedly to lead toward Iran ended up in Israel; and after declaring servitude to the criminal Netanyahu, representatives of Israel’s parliament drafted a plan for separating beloved Azerbaijan from Iran. The sum of these betrayals pushed the “Woman, Life, Freedom” uprising into eclipse—an unforgettable lesson.
- 4) Popular, high-audience television channels that, in line with the interests of their sponsoring states, seek to promote their traitorous agents and mercenaries—an example of which was exposed by the newspaper Haaretz—must not be overlooked.
- 5) Under multiple constitutional principles, including Articles 3, 9, and 27, and also Articles 156 and 157 of the Penal Code, first, preserving legitimate freedoms and fundamental and natural rights is not only your right but also your duty; and in order to protect these rights, your legitimate self-defense—when defending life, honor, chastity, property, or personal freedom, of yourself or another, against any aggression or actual or imminent danger—is lawful, even against government agents. Therefore, do not hesitate in exercising your legal rights, and if necessary, use your lawful right of legitimate self-defense.
- 6) In view of the strategy of non-violent struggle, which is consistent with national and human values, we strongly ask you to refrain from any destruction or damage to public or private property, and to work—through strengthening the mutual bond between the people and the national armed forces—to attract these forces.

7) To organize the struggle and create order, discipline, and coordination, we propose that in every street and neighborhood, dear youth form spontaneous popular committees consisting of three or five members, so that through a bottom-up hierarchical organization, appropriate measures can be taken.

8) Now that the exhausted and suffering sectors of society have begun a magnificent uprising, the matter is settled for students, attorneys, workers, artists, athletes, farmers, teachers, pupils, legal scholars, and others. Therefore, we sincerely and humbly ask them, by joining the struggle, to fulfill their share of this national, moral, and human responsibility.

9) In a situation where:

“The ball of success and dignity has been cast into the field,”

it would be a great loss if veteran anti-despotism and anti-colonialism forces—such as the great tribes and communities of Qashqai, Lor, Bakhtiari, Boyer-Ahmadi, Arab, Baluch, Turkmen, Turk, Azeri, Khorasani, Tangestani, Kurd, Mazani, Gilak, Fars, and ...—remain absent.

This shared pain will never be cured separately, one by one.

Proud nation of Iran

Long live Iran
